Hocking County

Formerly Happy Hills Campground - Same Owners, just more fun!

Will you abide by Campers Code?

- CONSIDERATE • I will be considerate of other campers by respecting their rights. I will be courteous in my dealings with other campers, respect their privacy, be in control of my children, and make sure my pets are on leashes and cleaned up after.
- CAUTION • I will always use caution with my camping equipment and always handle fuel and fire with the respect it demands.
- CLEANLINESS • I will teach my children the importance of keeping our campsite clean. I will pick up litter and keep my area in a way that I can be proud of.
- CONSERVE • I will protect the environment and help guard our natural resources. I will strive to leave the environment, and in particular my area, in a way that is pleasing to those who follow.
- COMMON SENSE • I will always try to use common sense in every situation and think things through before reacting rashly.
- COOPERATE • I will cooperate with others in the campground and share the responsibilities that are a part of the camping experience. And I will obey the campground's rules and regulations.

Entrance onto the campground property constitutes permission for the management of Yogi Bear's Jellystone Park™ Camp-Resort in Nelsonville, OH to photograph the visitor while on the premises and to use any resulting pictures for any lawful purpose without compensation to the visitor.

The guest assumes all risks and danger incidental to the activity of camping in a rustic outdoors environment including specifically (but not exclusively), the danger of being injured by insects or other animals, of being injured while participating in recreational activities, such as hiking, swimming or boating at the Camp-Resort or of being injured as a result of inclement weather conditions, and agrees that the Camp-Resort and its owners, agents and employees are not liable for injuries or property damages resulting from such causes.
