CAMPING RULES & REGULATIONS

Campsites are on a first-come first-served basis. (Permit Required.) You must register first at the office Headquarters. Service Charge required. No refunds. Must be at least 18 to register for site and there must be someone at least 16 to attend campfire to keep burnable material 10' from campfire. All fires must be completely extinguished before you leave the site.

Water - Please bring your own drinking water.

Trash - You are to remove all trash. Burning, dumping glass, plastic or cans in campfire rings is not acceptable. Nails are not permitted in trees for any purpose.

Fires - You may not have any open campfire without a camping permit. Firewood for the campfire may be cut from dead and downed trees only.

Pets - Allowed with a leash.

Firearms - Loaded firearms and target shooting are not permitted at the campsite!

Group Sites - You may reserve a designated group site at least 2 weeks in advance for 20 or more people.

Restrooms - Available outside of the office - campsites are primitive. You must utilize a self-made, hand-dug latrine for waste & tissue paper, and then cover 100' from campsite.
