CHERAW STATE PARK

Cheraw State Park takes traditional recreational park activities to a new level of fun. The 18-hole, championship Cheraw State Park Golf Course winds its way through piney woodlands while maintaining and protecting the surrounding natural habitat of the park. Seventeen RV/tent campsites and nine cabins are available for overnight guests.

Cypress wetlands line Lake Juniper and can be explored by kayaks and canoes or via a boardwalk that runs along the lake. Try fishing from the boardwalk or by boat, or take time to explore other areas of Cheraw on the park's biking, and hiking trails.

ACCOMMODATIONS & FACILITIES:

7,361 acres • 14 campsites with water and electric • 8 1BR cabins • 3 full service campsites • 2 Hammock sites • 2 picnic shelters • Meeting space with kitchen • Trails • Playground • Volleyball court • 1 4BR Cabin • 5 rustic and hike-in sites

TOP THINGS TO SEE & DO:

Camping • Boat-in camping • Golfing • Group camping • Biking • Hiking • Fishing • Canoeing • Kayaking • Boating • Pedal boating • Bird-watching • Swimming • Geocaching • Standup paddleboarding
