-The Management

Tonight, probably for the first time in your life, you will sleep on a Civil War Battlefield. Over 100 years ago, men fought and died on the very soil where this Holiday Travel Park is located. During your stay, we will offer you a brief trip through the pages of history which were written here.

In the Southwest corner of the park stands a monument to the 84th Indiana Volunteer Regiment which was placed here after the Civil War by some of the men of that regiment who became famous for their heroic fighting in the Chattanooga area.

Our North-South streets are named for Civil War officers. The streets at the North end are named for Union Commanders; the streets at the South end are named for Confederate Generals. Most of these officers participated in the combat around Chattanooga. The other streets are named for Civil War battles.

A free Civil War video presentation, courtesy of the National Park Service, and of Chattanooga tourist attractions, is available upon request to be viewed in the lobby.
