

City of Rocks State Park

327 Hwy 61
Faywood, NM 88034
575-536-2800

City of Rocks State Park is a geological wonder that rests beneath some of the darkest night skies in the country where the stars truly "light-up" the night sky. Born some 34.5 million years ago from a volcanic eruption 1,000 times greater than Mount St. Helens, mother nature has slowly chiseled her into the rock 'city' you see today.

Open all year, we offer full service bath and shower facilities, 51 developed campsites, 10 electric/water sites, a 3 mile hiking and bike trail, botanical garden, and our new "star observatory" for night sky viewing programs of the galaxy and its wonders. City of Rocks State Park was the first park in the state to have its own observatory.

Rockhound State Park

9880 Stirrup Road SE
Deming, NM 88030
575-546-6182

On the western slope of the Little Florida Mountains, Rockhound State Park is popular among hikers looking for spectacular views, and among rock enthusiasts looking for unique rocks and minerals. Visitors can find a variety of rocks and minerals, ranging from quartz, agate (blue-gray in color), common opal (white-peach in color), jasper (yellow, pink, red, brown, chocolate, and variegated nodules) to thundereggs and geodes. Visitors are welcome to take souvenir rocks from the park.
