GPS Coordinates: 34° 24' 50" N - 93° 5' 20" W

Hot Springs, Arkansas is America's oldest national park, signed into law as a federal reservation by President Andrew Jackson, April 20, 1832.

Hot Springs is the boyhood hometown of former U.S. President Bill Clinton.

Hot Springs was a favorite vacation spot and respite for political, sports and other celebrities, as well as notorious gangsters such as Al Capone and Bugs Moran.

In the early 1900's teams like the Pittsburgh Pirates, Chicago Cubs and Boston Red Sox made Hot Springs the home base for their spring training camps.

Located on the shores of beautiful Lake Hamilton, just off Central Avenue in historic Hot Springs, a stay at Leisure Landing puts you just minutes away from the spa city's major shopping areas, great eateries, the national park and many exciting attractions.
