

WELCOME TO BATTLEFIELD CAMPGROUND & RV PARK

A safe and welcoming campground is a community responsibility.

Consistent with our Mission and Values, we expect everyone in our campground to treat others with respect and dignity, free of bias and discrimination. Behaviors that make anyone feel unwelcome or unsafe have no place in our campground. We trust our staff to address disruptive behaviors appropriately.

When in our campground:

Use our Spaces as Intended

This includes common areas and the site you have reserved.

Communicate with Respect

Obscene, harassing, abusive language, hate speech, racial slurs, gestures, or actions are unacceptable.

Act Responsibly

Follow all Campground rules and regulations. Violating any federal, state, or local law, regulation, or ordinance, including any applicable public health mandate, is prohibited.

Be Considerate of Our Guests

Loud or unreasonable noise or behavior that is disruptive to others is not tolerated.

Anyone not contributing to a safe and welcoming environment will be asked to change their behavior. Anyone not changing their behavior will be asked to leave the campground immediately, without refund, and with the help of law enforcement if necessary. If you experience or see conduct that you believe is discriminatory, harassing, or inconsistent with this commitment, please contact the office in person, or by phone/email located on the front of this guest guide.

Thank you for your business and we truly hope you enjoy your stay!
