DID YOU KNOW?

ANGELS CAMP: Not a bivouac for celestials, but the 1850s store of merchant Henry Angel.

SAN ANDREAS: No fault here. Calaveras County seat named after St. Andrew by Mexican prospectors.

STANISLAUS RIVER: Named by Major Fremont, not in honor of a Polish general, but for Estanislao, a Miwok leader.

MELONES: The tiny town under 200+ feet of water where Hwy. 49 crosses the Stanislaus. Named for melon-seed-like gold nuggets found nearby.

CALAVERAS: Spanish for skulls; a small river where Mexican prospectors found skulls; also a county in California noted for its wines (like NAPA is noted for auto parts).
