Points of Interest

Palm Springs Aerial Tramway

Tramway Road West of Highway 111
Palm Springs, CA 92262
760-325-1391

The tram cars travel 13,200 feet in 14 minutes up the jagged face of the mountains, affording a spectacular view of the desert below. The mountain station offers access to Mt. San Jacinto State Park with hiking trails, winter sports areas, campgrounds and picnic areas.

HISTORICAL SITES

Kimberly Crest

1325 Prospect Drive, Redlands, CA 92373
909-792-2111

Flanked by terraced gardens, this fairy-tale-like French chateau, built in 1897, is situated on a knoll overlooking the valley and the San Bernardino Mountains. The house is elegantly furnished with period pieces from the early 1900s.

The Lincoln Memorial Shrine

125 W Vine Street, Redlands, CA 92373
909-798-7636

Built in 1932, the shrine houses memorials to Abraham Lincoln including the Norman Rockwell portrait "Thoughts on Peace on Lincoln's Birthday." This is the only museum and library west of the Mississippi River dedicated to our sixteenth President.

MUSEUMS

Gilman Ranch Historic Park & Wagon Museum

Wilson & 16th Streets, Banning, CA 92220
951-922-9200

The park features adobe ruins and a wagon museum with memorabilia dating back to the 1800s. Picnic facilities are available.

Hi-Desert Nature Museum

57-116 Twenty-Nine Palms Hwy.
Yucca Valley, CA 92284
760-369-7212

Over 10,000 specimens, ranging from rocks and gems to bird eggs and butterflies, are on exhibit. An intriguing mini-zoo of live desert reptiles, animals and spiders is also open to the public.

San Bernardino Asistencia Mission

26930 Barton Road, Redlands, CA 92373
909-793-5402

Built in 1834 as an outpost of the Mission San Gabriel, the buildings and grounds are beautifully restored. The Asistencia also includes a museum and a wedding chapel.

San Bernardino County Museum

2024 Orange Tree Lane, Redlands, CA 92374
909-798-8570

Specializing in the cultural and natural history of San Bernardino County, neighboring Southern California and the Southwest, objects are exhibited from collections in archaeology, history, minerals, fossils, birds and mammals. Fine arts exhibits are shown in two galleries and special exhibits are featured. The landscaped grounds contain exhibits of mining equipment, transportation and the citrus industry.
