The logo for American Mobility is a colorful illustration. On the left, a man with grey hair and a mustache, wearing a brown jacket, sits on a blue motorized scooter. On the right, a woman with grey hair, wearing a pink shirt and purple pants, sits in a black wheelchair and waves her right hand. Between them is a large, dark blue trapezoidal shape with the words "American Mobility" in white, stylized script. The background is white with several light blue starburst patterns. The entire logo is enclosed in a black border.
