THINGS TO DO...

PINES VILLAGE – Bass Lake Watersports

DISCOVER YOSEMITE TOURS - Full day Yosemite tours pick up and returning to resort.

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK – 13 miles from entrance. One hour drive to valley. Make sure you get gas before you go. Tours available, check in the office.

SUGAR PINE RAILROAD – 10 miles from our park. Travel along the historic right of way of the Madera Sugar Pine Railroad where mighty lumberjacks felled the timber and flumes carried the lumber to the town of Madera.

BEAUTIFUL BASS LAKE – Fishing, watersports, boat rentals and launch, day use. Check with the office for suggestions.

SHOPPING – THE PINE VILLAGE is within walking distance and offers restaurants, gift shops and groceries.

OAKHURST – Formerly “Fresno Flats” – a short drive where you can experience everything from fine art to fast food or antiques to the latest movie. At the southern end of California’s gold country.

MARIPOSA – “Butterfly” in Spanish, has some of the more interesting sites in the area, boasting the oldest courthouse in the U.S. still holding court, St. Joseph’s Catholic Church built in 1861 and still in use. The Mariposa Museum and History Center is a great place to see the history of the area.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW...
